WASHINGTON STATE
THE PERFECT CLIMATE FOR WINE™

Welcome to Washington Wine Country

Produced by the Washington Wine Commission, this book is your guide to discovering the wineries, regions and unique spirit of Washington's wine industry. The Washington Wine Commission works on behalf of all Washington State wine grape growers and wine producers and is governed by a board of commissioners. The Commission provides a marketing platform for the Washington wine industry and raises positive awareness of its wines so that the industry may achieve long term success.

The Washington wine industry has experienced phenomenal growth, more than doubling in size during the past five years. Ranked second nationally in wine production, the state now has over 580 wineries, 350 wine grape growers and more than 32,000 vineyard acres. The Washington wine industry contributes over $3 billion to the state's economy and supports 14,000 jobs. It is increasingly playing a significant role in rural economic diversification efforts and in providing alternatives to traditional agricultural crop production. In 2006, three new American Viticulture Areas (AVAs) were established by the federal government, bringing Washington to a total of nine officially designated regions. Wine enthusiasts will enjoy exploring Washington's diverse wine country and learning about the wineries that are now located in every corner of the state.

As you begin your travels through Washington's wine country you will have the opportunity to taste a wide range of both red and white wines. More than 20 wine grape varieties thrive in the state. Leading varieties include Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Chardonnay, Riesling, Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon. Unlike most other wine regions of the world, Washington vineyards are planted with vines growing on their own roots, rather than grafted onto rootstock, providing for exceptional wines that express their true varietal character and flavors. Washington wines can now be found in all 50 states and more than 40 countries.

Touring the state is the best way to interact with the people and places that make up Washington's vibrant wine industry. During your journey, you'll discover for yourself why Washington State is the Perfect Climate for Wine.

Happy touring and tasting!

Washington's American Viticultural Areas

Washington has nine federally-designated regions called American Viticulture Areas (AVAs) which are recognized by the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB). Each AVA has unique climate, soil, and physical features which add complexity to the grape profiles and distinguish it from surrounding areas.

YAKIMA VALLEY

- Washington's first AVA - established in 1983
- 11,000 vineyard acres and more than 65 wineries
- Primary wine grape varieties - Chardonnay, Riesling, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah

WALLA WALLA VALLEY

- Established in 1984
- Over 1,200 vineyard acres and more than 100 wineries
- Primary wine grape varieties - Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Syrah

COLUMBIA VALLEY

- Washington's largest AVA - established in 1984
- Red Mountain, Yakima Valley, Walla Walla, Horse Heaven Hills and Wahluke Slope are all within its borders
- More than 16,000 vineyard acres and 100 wineries
- Primary wine grapes varieties - Chardonnay, Riesling, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Syrah

PUGET SOUND

- Established in 1995
- More than 130 vineyard acres and 100 wineries
- Primary wine grape varieties - Madeleine Angevine, Müller Thurgau, Siegerrebe, Pinot Noir and Pinot Gris

RED MOUNTAIN

- Washington's smallest AVA - established 2001
- Over 710 vineyard acres and nearly 15 wineries
- Primary wine grape varieties - Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Syrah, Lemberger, Malbec, Cabernet Franc and Sangiovese

COLUMBIA GORGE

- Established in 2004
- Approximately 350 vineyard acres and more than 15 wineries
- Primary wine grape varieties - Chardonnay, Gewürztraminer, Riesling, Pinot Gris, Pinot Noir, and Zinfandel

HORSE HEAVEN HILLS

- Established in 2005
- Over 6,000 vineyard acres and more than 20 wineries
- Primary wine grape varieties - Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Syrah, Riesling, Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc

WAHLUKE SLOPE

- Established in 2006
- More than 5,200 vineyard acres and 3 wineries
- Primary wine grape varieties - Riesling, Merlot, Syrah, and Cabernet Sauvignon

RATTLESNAKE HILLS

- Established in 2006
- 1500 vineyard acres and over 20 wineries
- Primary wine grape varieties - Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Syrah, Malbec, Riesling and Chardonnay

Washington State ranks second nationally in wine production. Washington State's northerly latitude allows for an average of 17.4 hours of sunlight during the summer growing season, two hours more than California's prime growing regions.

This extra daylight allows grapes to ripen fully, and cool nights allow the fruit's natural acids to remain high, creating richly flavored and well-balanced wines.

Washington's Wine Grapes

Reds

Washington produces more than 20 wine grape varieties. As the industry matures and experiments it finds many grape varieties that thrive in Washington's microclimates. The most common red varieties in Washington include:

Merlot

Characteristics include full-bodied, moderate tannins with higher alcohol than Bordeaux; slightly higher in acidity than Californian Merlot. Washington Merlot is known for its sweet cherry, berry flavors and complex aromas including mint, cigar box and sweet spices like nutmeg and cardamom.

Cabernet Sauvignon

In its youth, the wine appears more subtle and restrained than Washington Merlot. Its character can emerge as black currant, cherry, berry, chocolate, leather, mint, herbs, bell pepper or any combination. The wine ages well. Frequently, several years of bottle aging are needed for Washington's Cabernet Sauvignon to show at its best.

Syrah

Washington soils and climate work well for Syrah to thrive. A spicy, rich, complex varietal, Syrah grapes turn into big, dark, intensely concentrated wines with aromas and flavors of blackberries, black currants, roasted coffee and leather.

Cabernet Franc

Long considered primarily a blending grape, Cabernet Franc is quite hardy and used primarily for the sturdy core and firm tannins it adds to softer wines. On its own, it offers delicious spicy notes with mellow coffee and intense blueberry fruit.

Other Reds

Other Red varieties include: Lemberger, Sangiovese, Malbec, Pinot Noir, Zinfandel, Nebbiolo, Petit Verdot

Whites

The most common white varieties in Washington include:

Chardonnay

While Chardonnay is noted in many other regions as a rich and powerful wine, Washington Chardonnays are often distinctively crisp and delicate, like fresh apples. Oak is often used with a lighter touch, showing off the varietal character. Some wineries use malolactic fermentation to add rich vanilla and buttery nuances.

Riesling

Washington Riesling tends to be floral in the nose, with intense apricot and peach flavors. Occasionally "noble rot" (botrytis cinerea) works its magic on Riesling, concentrating sugars and flavors to produce a late-harvest or ice wine.

Sauvignon Blanc

Washington Sauvignon Blanc has been popularized for its distinctive character and described as fruity with a touch of herbaceousness and lively acidity. Styles range from slightly tart to tangy pineapple with a little oak.

Semillon

Washington's Semillon is most often enjoyed young, but ages beautifully into rich, honeyed, nutty wines. Flavors range from crisp citrus, melon and fig to fresh pears and vanilla.

Gewürztraminer

Gewürztraminer is successful in Washington due to its ability to hold through the cold winters. This grape offers an allspice, tropical fruit flavor with zesty aroma.

Other Whites

Chenin Blanc, Aligote, Madeleine Angevine, Muscat Canelli, Müller Thurgau, Pinot Gris, Siegerrebe, Viognier and Roussanne.

Washington Wine Industry Timeline

To assist in planning your wine country tour, the following winery information and regional maps provide visitors with an orientation to each wine country touring region. These maps are not drawn to exact scale, but may assist in your daily trip planning. Please visit www.washingtonwine.org and click on "Links" for additional regional association and wine tourism information.

AREA
1

Puget Sound

Over 100 wineries are located in this area within easy day-trip distance from Seattle. Most run along the Interstate 5 corridor and continue west to include the Olympic Peninsula. Many wines from this region have limited availability. See page 17

8

Woodinville

Woodinville is located just 45 minutes northeast of Seattle. It is home to over 45 wineries. Although wine grapes are not grown in this area, wineries source their grapes from Washington's finest vineyards and are committed to high standards of quality. See page 30

AREA
8

Yakima Valley & Rattlesnake Hills

Yakima Valley is a 2 hour drive from Seattle and Spokane or 2.5 hours from Portland. This region is home to more than 60 wineries and over one third of the state's vineyards.

Yakima Valley offers wine enthusiasts an opportunity to taste an increasing array of high quality wines. Touring is available via car, bicycle or chartered bus tours. See page 37

4

Tri-Cities & Red Mountain

The Tri-Cities of Pasco, Richland and Kennewick are a 3 hour drive or 45 minute flight from Seattle. Located in the heart of the Columbia Valley, this region includes Red Mountain and enjoys over 300 days of sunshine. Come experience world-class wines from over 45 wineries. See page 45

8

Walla Walla Valley

The Walla Walla Valley offers visitors a unique wine experience to visit over 100 wineries. Walla Walla is easily accessible via car or air. Travel time to Walla Walla is a 3-5 hour drive from Spokane or Seattle or a 60 minute flight from Seattle.

This fast growing region features several fine restaurants and hotel accommodations for every budget. See page 50

AREA
8

Spokane/Pullman

Spokane is the largest city in eastern Washington and home to more than 10 wineries. It is a five hour drive from Seattle or 45 minutes by air. Area wineries are family-owned and located within an hours' drive of the city center. Hotels, restaurants, arts and entertainment are available for any taste. See page 60

1

Southwest Washington

Southwest Washington features rolling hillside vineyards and wineries tucked along the shores of the Columbia Gorge. Home to nearly 15 family-owned wineries, this area is a 3-4 hour drive from Seattle. Small hotels, B&Bs and services are found in nearby Vancouver, Portland or Hood River. See page 63

8

North Central Washington

The North Central region is bordered on the west by the Cascade Mountains and extends to the northeast corner of the state and includes over 40 wineries to tour. This region is a 3 hour drive from Seattle or Spokane.

Wines produced in this region are from local and Columbia Valley vineyards. Lodging can range from simple B&Bs to larger motels and many family-owned restaurants. See page 66

For a complete, alphabetical listing of all the wineries in this Washington Wine Regions Guide, please see pages 72-74.
